

Handout MENTOR - 2.3 C

Case 1.

Lucy is beautiful and smart. She is an excellent student and the teachers' pet. Her classmate Julie pretends to like her, but she spreads bad rumours about her and makes nasty comments about Lucy's foreign origin on Facebook. Lucy finds out and wants to know why.

Handout MENTOR - 2.3 C

Case 2.

George and Timothy are in the same class. George is a rich boy, he wears the most expensive brands and he likes showing off. Timothy, on the other hand, is the trouble maker, the naughty guy. One day George's smartphone is stolen and George blames Timothy. The two of them get into a fight calling each other names.

Handout MENTOR - 2.3 C

Case 3.

Gregory and Martin are working together on a class project. They have divided up the work, but Gregory hasn't done his part. Instead, he has been going out and having fun with other guys from the school, while Martin has been working hard at home in the evenings. The deadline is in two days and Martin is very upset and calls Gregory irresponsible and useless.

Handout MENTOR - 2.3 C

Case 4.

Helen and Mary have been best friends since primary school. Helen confides in Mary everything, including her secret crush for their classmate Nick. Nick and his friends start making fun of Helen and laughing at her. Mary denies giving her secret away, but Helen thinks she is a 'traitor'.

Handout MENTOR - 2.3 C

Case 5.

Ronald and Mathew grew up together. However, Mathew has changed recently. He's stopped studying, he cheats in the exams, he has become aggressive and Ronald is worried. He threatens to talk to Mathew's parents and teachers. Mathew is furious and tells him to mind his own business.